A special service for the installation of church officers of the new conference year, and the recognition of persons becoming members this past year, will be held this Sunday night, at 7:30, in the Waleria Community Methodist church, 3646 Newton, street, Waleria. Nursery care will be provided.

The service, planned by the Membership Commission and chairman, Mrs. Wm. Mitchell, will include the installation of officers for the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Methodist Men. A period for fellowship and refreshments will follow.

Invitations are being sent to all persons having joined this past year, to all new officers, and to the members and friends of the church.

This Sunday morning at both services, 9:30 and 11 a.m., Rev. Gene Gehres will preach on the

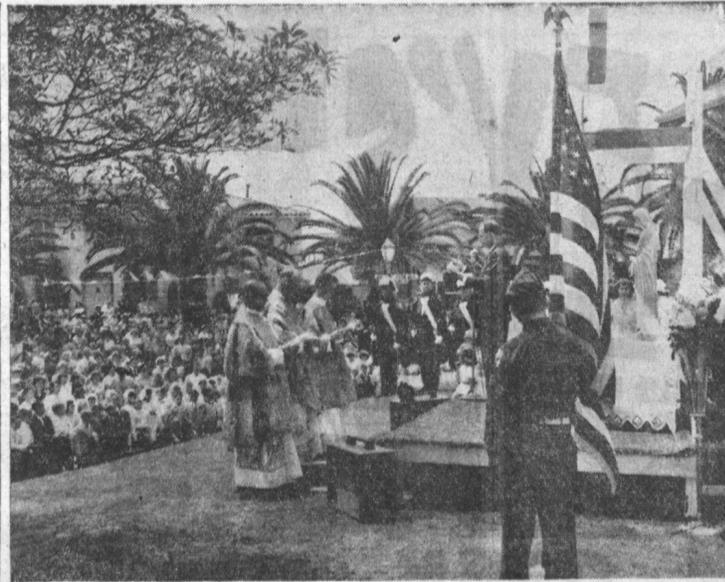

Dr. Barnum To Speak On 'Success'

"Success," says Dr. Earl Barnum, minister of the Church of Religious Science, "is a purely relative term. What would epitomize success to one man would represent only a milestone along the way to another with larger vision.

Sunday service of the Church of Religious Science, Junior Church, and Meateens are held concurrently at 10:45 a.m. in the Masonic Temple, Ruby and Catalina streets, Redondo Beach. A nursery is provided.

The Youth of Religious Science meets at 7:00 p.m. Sunday in the Classroom, 503 S. Catalina, Redondo. The Inspiration Hour meets Wednesday at 1 p.m. in the Classroom. The public is cordially invited.

subject: "The Ideal Church." Sunday School is held at both hours, with nursery care for children under two years also provided.

OUT-DOOR ALTAR . . . In addition to celebrating the 30th anniversary of their parish, members of the local Catholic community also celebrated the Feast of the Queenship of Mary. Seen are (l-r) Rev. Edward Sullivan, former assistant pastor at Nativity; Rev. Patrick McGuinness, pastor; and Rev. John Fallon of Los Angeles. Lawrence Sargent, senior choir director, takes charge of the singing. Parish Organizations Join in Nativity Fete

Nativity Catholic Church celebrated its 30th anniversary last Sunday, May 29, with a colorful parade in which were represented all the parish organizations, as well as some nearby parishes.

Keynoted to New Feast

The celebration was keynoted to the new Catholic feastday of the Queenship of Mary which was recently proclaimed to fall on May 31. Following the parade a solemn crowning of Mary's statue was held at the shrine and altar set up between the church and Nativity parish hall, which formerly was used for devotions before the new church was built.

Following the coronation, Nativity's pastor, Father Patrick McGuinness addressed the throng, and Lawrence Sargent, senior choir director, led in community singing of hymns. The ceremony closed with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament celebrated by the pastor.

Parade Lineup

The parade, which started at 1 p.m. at Nativity school grounds, proceeded up Carson to Cota street, and to the church. The order of the parade was as follows:

1. Explorer Troop 219X — Bearer Jack McNeil (Eagle Scout and 1955 Top Junior
2. Two Angels (Rita Carpenter and Penelope Chill)
3. King and Queen Float (First Grade)
4. First Grade with Rosary
5. Bearers of Blessed Virgin Mary and attendants (Sharon Burns, Mary McGinley, Mary Turner, Susan Cernore)
6. Nativity Grade School children—grades 3-8 inclusive.
7. Public School children.
8. Junior Catholic Daughters of America — Court St. Catherine.
9. Float — "Show Him Your Care."
10. Senior Catholic Daughters of America — Court St. Catherine.
11. Nativity Sponsored Boy Scout Troop 209 and Girl Scout Troop 610.
12. Bearer of Blessed Virgin Mary and attendance (Robert Garcia, Leonard Lolly, John Phat, Richard Jerkovich).
13. Nativity School First Communion class — led by 2

Church Youth To Attend Faith Session

The young people of Calvary Community Church of Torrance are making plans to attend the Camp Faith session, which is sponsored each summer by the American Sunday School Union. This year camp will be held at "Marantha Camp" at Idyllwild, California, June 18 to 25.

The regular monthly family fellowship dinner was held at the Calvary Community Church of Torrance, Thursday, May 26, at 6:30 p.m.

Dessert and salads were furnished by those attending, with navy beans as the hot dish. Plans were made for summer vacation bible school, which will be held some time in August. The theme will be "Sailing with Christ." Mrs. Harold Tuttle will be the director.

Mrs. William Dixon, president-elect of Howard Wood P-TA, at the recent meeting of the Perry association. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard M. Clayton, of 2025 Border Ave., announce the birth of a son, David Bruce, weighing 8 pounds and 8 ounces.
